

Video Gets Credit For Record Voting

By GWEN BARKAN
Well, the votes have been cast, and the Carson area, like the rest of the world, reports a record vote—I don't know just what was responsible for the huge trek to the polls, but I feel that television had a lot to do with it. Just watching the returns come in made all those payments worthwhile!

A real old-fashioned party with a Halloween flavor was enjoyed by Cub Scout Pack No. 230-C at the Roy Carter home Monday night. Balloons and apples were used in many of the games they played, and more than one Cub almost lost a loose tooth trying to bite a dangling apple! Four of the members had earned membership cards, and were awarded "Bobcat" pins. Refreshments were served to 40 Cubs and 30 adults.

One person who will remember this election day is eight-year-old Courtland Smith of 635 W. 31st St. He landed in the hospital with a broken leg as the result of an accident on Carson St. While he was riding his bike home from school, two dogs began biting at his trouser legs. Dismounting, he tried to chase them away and was forced into the street, and between the traffic and the dogs hadn't much chance. He's in room 8-C at the Harbor General Hospital and will appreciate a card from his friends, I'm sure.

Attending the luncheon meeting at the Harbor Welfare Council last Wednesday, were Mrs. W. P. Carey, welfare chairman of Carson St. P.T.A., and Mrs. Jeannie McCormick, vice-principal of Carson St. School. They report that a most informative discussion on psychiatry was presented.

The W. Martinus home at 519 W. 215th St. was the scene of a nice party Tuesday night. It was one of the demonstration kind, but most interesting.

and guests enjoyed watching the election returns, too.

I happened to pass Carson St. School last Tuesday and observed Kay Norcross, Jean Elmore and June Lewis and a tall, good-looking gentleman, watching the cars whiz by. Satisfying my curiosity, I learned that the ladies comprise the P.T.A. safety committee and the man in question was Mr. Feather of the Auto Club. They were making a final survey of the traffic situation in order that the Auto Club could help their safety drive. The wonderful work of this committee can't be praised enough. Already there are now markers and brightly painted signs throughout the area.

Compton is the John Noon family, who have resided at 740 W. 214th for the past five years. We all hate to see them move, but it's just one of those things—Mr. Noon works in Compton and the whole family will benefit by living there.

And while we're on the subject, we have another little boy celebrating his fourth birthday. Gregory Solomon, 636 W. 214th St., had his party last Friday.

little friends who joined in making the party gay, played games and sang the "Happy Birthday" song, succeeded in making Timmy feel like "king" for at least one day.

and is now the best supplied of all our air-minded youngsters. His mother reports that he has almost every type of airplane known to Woolworth. Along with the planes he received many other nice gifts, and all the kids enjoyed the ice cream and cake, without which no party is complete.
